

Long Island Business News

NEWSMAKERS

May 7 – May 13, 2010

RON MORE

DR. NICK GABRIEL

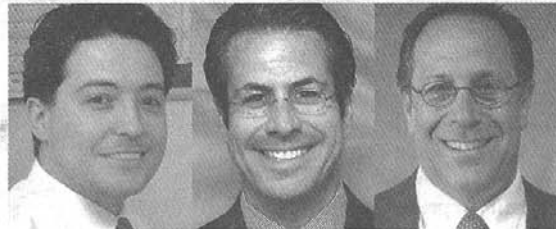

MARY JO (JODY)
FITZPATRICK

BENJAMIN WEINSTOCK

VITO MINEI

KAREN M. JOHNSON

EVAN HALPERIN

MARTIN LOMAZOW

RICHARD KARSON

CHRISTINE BRUNETTE

DIANE CORRADO

KATHY AMOROSO

Accounting

Marcum welcomed Ron More as managing director in its advisory services division. More, who brings 25-plus years of valuation and appraisal industry experience to the Melville-based firm, will be responsible for business development, key account sales, project management and Marcum's renewable energy group.

Financial Services

Laurence Winoker, senior vice president and chief financial officer of Garden City-based Lifetime Brands Inc., has been named the 2010 Financial Executive of the Year by the Institute of Management Accountants' Long Island Chapter.

Health Care

Dr. Nick Gabriel has joined the surgical staff at St. Charles Hospital in Port Jefferson. Dr. Gabriel, who completed his internship and residency at Wyckoff Heights Medical Center and a fellowship in advanced laparoscopy at the Yale University School of Medicine, is also affiliated with St. Catherine of Siena Medical Center in Smithtown.

Information Technology

Delter Computer Group in Farmingdale welcomed Mary Jo (Jody) Fitzpatrick as a sales executive. Fitzpatrick, who has worked in sales development and management for more than 33 years, will focus on developing new clients and strategic partners within the New York metropolitan area. She was most recently an account executive for SecureAgent in Tulsa, Okla.

Law

Benjamin Weinstock has been elected a fellow of the American College of Real Estate Lawyers. A partner at Ruskin Moscou Faltischek, Weinstock co-chairs the Uniondale-based firm's real estate department.

Nonprofits

Cornell Cooperative Extension of Suffolk County, which is based in Riverhead, has named Vito Minei its new executive director. A Suffolk County employee for more than 37 years, Minei was director of the division of environmental quality for the past decade.

Karen M. Johnson has joined Literacy Nassau, which is based in Freeport, as executive director. Previously Johnson was executive director of the Variety Boys & Girls Clubs of Queens Inc. Prior to that, she was senior program director for the Cross Island YMCA in Queens.

Usdan Center for the Creative and Performing Arts in Wheatley Heights announced that Maurice Brandon Curry will become chairman of its dance department, effective this summer. A director, choreographer and educator, Curry is the former director of the Joffrey Ballet School. Usdan Center will also welcome Dennis Nahat as a visiting master teacher this summer. Nahat is the artistic and executive director of Ballet San Jose in California.

Joseph Siniscalchi has joined the board of trustees of the Long Island Chapter of the National Multiple Sclerosis Society. Siniscalchi brings more than 30 years of financial industry experience to the Melville-based chapter. Most recently, he was a senior vice president and managing director at Morgan Stanley.

Evan Halperin has been elected treasurer of the Greater Long Island Running Club Inc., which is based in Plainview. Halperin, an accountant, replaces Susan Kaye, who is retiring after serving as treasurer for 25 years.

Real Estate

Martin Lomazow and Richard Karson have been named to the Colbert Coldwell Circle, an elite designation at CB Richard Ellis Group Inc. As executives in the firm's Woodbury office, Lomazow and Karson were recognized as top producers for arranging 13 transactions totaling 1.5 million square feet in 2009.

Realty Connect USA welcomed four new licensed sales associates. Christine Brunette, formerly of Coldwell Banker Residential Brokerage, and Diane Corrado, most recently with ReMax Best, have joined Realty Connect's Hauppauge office, while Kathy Amoroso and Anjali Gadkar are the latest additions to the firm's Woodbury office. Amoroso was most recently with Prudential Douglas Elliman Real Estate, while Anjali Gadkar worked for Daniel Gale Sotheby's International Realty.