CHALLENGE FOR 2010

INTRODUCING SHARON G. GROSSER LITERACY NASSAU'S (UN)SCRABBLE 2010 HONOREE

Sharon G. Grosser serves as the Director of External Affairs for Madison National Bank, and is also a Board Member of the Madison National Foundation, which provides funding to support charitable causes and community development activities in the communities served by the bank. Prior to joining Madison Bank, she was the first executive director of the Roslyn Saving Foundation, serving in this position for ten years. Sharon is a longtime friend of Literacy Nassau and a neighbor of our new home in Freeport.

Sharon launched her career at Grumman Aerospace Corporation. She served as the corporation's manager of community affairs during the last 18 years of her 30 year tenure with Grumman. A graduate of Farmingdale College and Adelphi University, Sharon is currently a member of the President's Council at Adelphi, as well as a board member of the Arthritis Foundation, and a member of the executive board of the Theodore Roosevelt Council of the Boy Scouts of America.

In addition to being recognized by numerous charitable organizations, Sharon is a member of Long Island Business News' Hall of Fame, recognizing her for three years as one of the Top 50 Most Influential Women in Business on Long Island. She is an avid golfer, gardener and enjoys long walks with her Fox Terrier, Daisy, and her extensive collection of Charles Schulz memorabilia.
